RESTORING HONOUR AND DESTINY

2 May & 3 May 2016

SHAME

AN ENEMY OF THE CROSS

Far too many believers are tormented by feelings of failure and unworthiness. They are bound by shame, not living the abundant and fulfilled life Jesus died for! Shame has many faces, affecting each of us in many ways... .. our identities, families (often for generations), ministries and churches. Shame can even affect entire cultures and nations. It is the driving force behind many addictions and compulsions, striving, anger, and prideful behaviors. Shame can affect us physically, emotionally, relationally and spiritually.

In this seminar you will learn the difference between guilt and shame, and how you can be set free from shame and restored to your blessed Christian identity as a son or daughter of the King of Kings !

True guilt is your friend. It drives you to the Cross of Christ. What you have done, you can confess. You are forgiven, and closeness with God and others are restored. But shame is an enemy of the Cross. Shame wraps around your identity and tempts you to hide from God, others and the truth.

In this seminar you will receive powerful keys of understanding and healing. Keys that will help free you from the shame that has bound you for so long, empower you to walk in honor and dignity; and encourage and equip you to embrace your Kingdom purpose and destiny.
